

Meeting 15

IT Project Communication

Why Role-Play Communication?

1. Practice speaking in real-life situations
2. Improve team coordination
3. Learn useful phrases for collaboration

Scenario Examples

1. Asking for updates: “Could you share the progress on module A?”
2. Giving feedback: “I think we need to revise the UI flow.”
3. Requesting clarification: “Can you explain the logic again?”

Activity Instructions

- 1. Pair/group up
- 2. Assign roles (leader, developer, QA, client)
- 3. Act out a team meeting using English
- 4. Use technical terms where possible

What is IT Project Communication?

1. The exchange of information in a project
2. Includes planning, sharing, updating, and reporting
3. Keeps everyone aligned with goals

Why is Communication Important in IT Projects?

1. Avoids misunderstandingImproves collaboration
2. Ensures task clarity
3. Keeps project on time and budgetBuilds trust

Common Communication Methods

Method	Example	Use Case
Email	Status report	Formal updates
Chat (Slack, WA)	Quick coordination	Daily tasks
Video Call	Google Meet	Team discussion
Docs	Google Docs	Shared writing
Tools	Trello, Jira	Assign tasks

Useful Phrases in Project Communication

1. Let's schedule a meeting to discuss this issue."
2. "Can you update your task status?"
3. "Please upload the report by tomorrow."
4. "We are behind schedule." "I have assigned this task to you."

Example Conversation (Project Meeting)

A: Hi team, let's review today's progress.

B: I completed the login feature.

C: I'm still working on the database setup.

A: Please finish it by Thursday. Any blockers?

Barriers to Effective Communication

1. Language barrierUnclear instructions
2. Poor internet connection
3. Cultural misunderstanding
4. Lack of documentation

Mini Task / Group Practice

1. Form a group of 3–4
2. Simulate a project meetingTalk about progress, tasks, and problems
3. Use at least 3 English phrases
4. Present in front of the class